
Presenters: Julie Rudolph, Kim Dickman

Description: Through this advising workshop session, advisors will learn more about the Educational Counseling and Disabilities Services office services. Considerable discussion will include: academic probation resources including the Strategies for Your Success Program, campus career counseling resources, and how to engage student create their personal roadmap for success.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Identify Ferris academic resources available for all students
2. Understand career resources at Ferris and how advisors can assist student with career decision making
3. Integrate techniques to assist students develop their personal plan for academic success