OLD BUSINESS:

I. The committee approved February’s meeting minutes.

II. HPSAP Website
   a. When last Dan checked, the website had not yet been updated.
   b. Committee members should keep an eye on it.

III. Kim L’s prescription drug abuse talk
   a. Tom booked a room for it—the Granger auditorium.
   b. We’re postponing the talk until the fall.
      i. This will help avoid scheduling conflicts.
      ii. It will make it possible to promote the talk to FSUS students.
        1. John K. passed around a list of topics FSUS classes look at.
      iii. We may also be able to get this talk included in Academic Support Lecture series.
        1. Tom will talk to the Academic Support Center this month.

IV. Relay for Life
   a. Reminder of date: 6:00 – 9:00 (or longer if you so desire) Friday, March 30th
i. Set-up begins around 5:00.
b. Kelli or Peggy will take care of signing up all the faculty members present at the meeting who are going to attend Relay for Life.
   i. Team captains are also taking care of making our team’s banner.
c. Kelli passed out a timeline for events during Relay for Life.
   i. We’ll do our pie-ing at 8:15.
d. Supplies
   i. John K. said he could bring a table for us to use at Relay.
   ii. Kim L. will bring a tarp for the pie-ing.
   iii. We should all bring individually wrapped baked goods to sell.
   iv. Kim L. has a couple of cases of water; can we sell water?
      1. Someone needs to look into the rules about that.

NEW BUSINESS

I. Prepping for April
   a. Flavor of the month: Safe sex, STDs, sex violence prevention
      i. Everyone should send links to Jon.

II. Roundtable
   a. Kim L. highlighted several coming events:
      i. Choices Program: Primed for Life
         1. This is an eight-week program.
         2. 5-10 people are going to be starting it soon.
      ii. Public Health Summit
         1. 9:00-3:30, April 10 at the Mount Pleasant Comfort Inn and Suites
   b. Nate brought up prescription drug disposal
      i. Working on making medicine-disposal sites public knowledge.
         1. Hung signs on campus, at the hospital and hospice
         2. Electronic version of poster should be sent to Jon T. so he can post it on Facebook.
      ii. Collection sites at police stations take drop-offs anytime and hold them until the DEA picks it up twice a year.
      iii. Collection sites don’t take liquids or needles, but do take pet medicines.
