Be Yours
your name — 80 percent of Ferris classes have fewer than 25 students. Work toward your future with professors who are focused on your success. Never be just a number in an additional role.

Since 1884, Ferris State University has been the leader in education excellence. More than just the basic majors, we give you the chance to explore new areas of interest — they want job candidates with experience. Seven out of 10 employers say that the best graduates have a variety of educational and work experiences as helping students prepare to enter the global workforce.
