

Ferris: There's Food Here! Facebook Group

Ferris: There's Food Here! lets the University Community use Facebook to share information about free food and food deals currently available on the Big Rapids Campus. This system was created to help people. The site operates on the honor system. The aim is to share food availability information with as many students as possible. Faculty, staff and students are encouraged to post pictures and information of where and when free food is available on the Big Rapids campus.

This is not a food sustainability system. The frequency of food availability is unknown. Membership to this group is open to all of the Ferris community. Let's look out for one another and be an ethical community.

Ferris: There's Food Here!

Homelessness and food insecurity are issues confronting colleges and universities across the nation. Ferris State is not an exception. One of the initiatives in the new diversity and inclusion plan is to assess and address the needs of Ferris students who are experiencing food insecurity and homelessness. For more information on available resources, please contact the Diversity and Inclusion Office.
