Senior Resident Advisor Position Description

The Senior Resident Advisor (SrRA) is a live-in, paraprofessional staff member of the Office of Housing and Residence Life. The SrRA is responsible for performing all of the responsibilities provided in the Resident Advisor position. Additionally, the SrRA assumes a number of administrative, programmatic, and leadership responsibilities for the staff team and within the halls, which can include, but are not limited to: developing, approving, and tracking the programmatic efforts of student staff; administering recognition for his/her hall(s)’s student staff; implementing and facilitating staff development activities during training and meetings; serving as second-in-command during hall opening and closing periods; and maintaining a significant presence on Student Staff Training and/or Student Staff Recruitment & Selection committees. The Office of Housing and Residence Life looks for candidates who have demonstrated the ability to meet and exceed the expectations of their RA position, have worked with the Office of Housing and Residence Life for at least two semesters as an RA, and maintain a 2.5 cumulative GPA as well as a 2.3 semester GPA. This is a 10 month position, running from August to May. Applicants may not be enrolled in internships, clinical or practicum experiences, participate in student teaching, be enrolled in the police academy, or have any academic commitments which take them off campus for significant amounts of time while employed as a SrRA.
