Meeting the Requirements of NCLB and Education YES! from the MDE and a Consortium of Professional Associations

In collaboration with the MDE, a consortium of Michigan professional associations whose members have the primary responsibility of implementing and communicating the requirements of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act and Education YES! will be conducting regional Informational Workshops for district teams. The following organizations and professional associations have collaborated to design this workshop: MDE, MASSP, MEMSPA, MASA, MASCD, NCA, MSPRA, and MSDC.

Districts are invited to send teams of four to learn more about NCLB and Education YES! and how your district can successfully implement their requirements.

Workshop Goals:
✓ Provide information to expand principals' and superintendents' knowledge and understanding of critical issues related to meeting the requirements of NCLB, Education YES!, and Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP).
✓ Describe the statewide and regional accountability resources available to principals, superintendents and school improvement teams.
✓ Provide time and a process for teams to develop a communication and action plan as to how the information learned will be shared and used in their districts.

Workshop Topics:
✓ General overview of NCLB, Education YES!, and Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP)
✓ Data Decision-Making
✓ School Improvement Plans
✓ NCLB & Ed YES! Reports
✓ Explaining NCLB & Ed YES! Reports
✓ Scientifically-Based Research
✓ Professional Development
✓ Highly Qualified Teachers
✓ Special Education and NCLB & Ed YES!

Who should attend?
✓ A district team of four – superintendent, central office staff, principal and teacher leader will work best.
